Sunday Exchange Concert Series - Sunday, September 8

Grab your chairs and blankets to join us for the last concert of the 2019 Downtown Aberdeen's Sunday Exchange Concert Series held at the Municipal Parking Lot off Garrett St. The lot is between Railhouse Brewery & Kees Appliance Center!

Nathan Angelo will be performing. As the revival of music in the 60's and 70's brought together the heritage of the Great American songbook, the flair of jazz and heartache of the Delta blues, Angelo integrates these forms into his own music with great ease and delight.

Each concert is completely FREE to the public. We will have Cousins Main Lobster, California Taco, & Berri Bowlful food trucks on site and Railhouse Brewery & James Creek Cider House for some delicious cold pints.

These are national bands that bring a dash of culture to the Sandhills! You can't see any bands this great anywhere for FREE so make sure you take advantage of this opportunity!
